Something to Think About

AVOID THE RUTS

I' YOU would surmount obstacles travel the great highway which ranne in fully places, where falling gettwere contained by ourse ful as you go to accord the cuts.

All about you are numerous in his and pits, seemingly wanting to engli ! progress when your safe passage the date true on I

They are hidden in a thousand places, many of them within your sition with acrosown heart, which, if you would fre brooky stal. The did has never been quently, examine with an imparime you would discover to be the lants of Eldin Yafe through months, and possibly years. of hee, tons finally wreck your fond est ambition upon the very threshold of success, and land you helpleson your back among the braces and brambles.

You may be passably well edicated, you may have good looks, the manners of a Ch. speciald wear time clothes and even be expalite of stull ing and counterfelling the grand at of kings, but if you have become mbituaced to ogly mosts, soldie toyets of anger in which you spou polynomies words, you will find a the passing years beave their languages upon you, that you are in a terrible rut, down in the stocks mire from Then no one-can possibly 1984 for except courself.

And at this period of your life yo will awaken to the and truth the you are a little bit shaks on you feet. lack youthful imagination an courage, and, worst of all loeve tos your faith, the most helpful asset man or woman can possibly possess in spite of the spinings of the skep treal and those thoughtless indivimala who openly decide its potentia

To travel the devious ways of his without faith, is like trying to said ship without a molder, or rich at hit tamed bronco without a bridle.

You may smile at such danger when in company but when you are alon you may be likely to become supremeserious, as millions of others have ione before you, when they found it was too lare.

There is no possibility of writing your name on the eternal skies while you remain in the rule, which have threatened the downfall of anonwoman since the sorrowful day Eve bit into the fatal apple, but if you walk in the light and accept wiss counsel, nothing but death can keep you from the beights.
